(4) This section applies in addition to section 35(2)(c).

43. (1) The Authority may, by notice to the holder of a financial conduct licence, suspend the licence for a period specified in the notice if—

(a) the holder of the licence applies for suspension;
(b) the holder of the licence has contravened any condition of the licence or has not complied with the condition in material respect;
(c) the holder of the financial conduct licence, or one of its key persons of the licensee, has—
   (i) contravened this Act or a sectoral law in a material respect;
   (ii) engaged in conduct that contravenes the Consumer Protection Act or a warranty implied into an agreement by that Act;
   (iii) contravened in a material respect a law of a foreign country that corresponds to this Act or the Consumer Protection Act;
(d) in the case of a licence referred to under section 35, the licence under the sectoral law is suspended or terminated, however described;
(e) information provided during the application of the conduct licence was false or misleading, including by omission in a material respect;
(f) the suspension is necessary to prevent—
(i) a serious contravention of this Act;

(ii) retail customers suffering material prejudice; or

(g) if—

(i) fees or charges in respect of the financial conduct licence or another financial sector licence held by the licensee; or

(ii) a levy or an administrative penalty payable by the licensee, including interest thereof is unpaid or remains unpaid for at least thirty days.

(2) The Authority may refuse to suspend a financial conduct licence under subsection (1)(a) if the suspension would—

(i) not be in the best interests of retail financial customers; or

(ii) frustrate the achievement of objectives set out in this Act applicable to the licence.

(3) A suspension of a financial conduct licence takes effect on the date of the notice under subsection (1) or, if a later date is specified in the notice, the later date.

(4) The suspension of a financial conduct licence shall not affect an obligation of the holder of the licence that the holder has under this Act.

(5) The Authority may, at any time revoke a suspension.

44. (1) The Authority may, by notice to the holder of a financial conduct licence, revoke a licence—

(a) if the holder of the licence applies for revocation;

(b) on any grounds on which the Authority may suspend a licence under section 43(1); or

(c) if the holder of the licence has ceased to conduct the licensed activities.

(2) The Authority may refuse to revoke a financial conduct licence under subsection (1)(a) if the revocation would—
(a) not be in the best interests of retail financial customers; or
(b) frustrate the achievements of the objectives set out in this Act applicable to the licence.

(3) A revocation of a financial conduct licence under subsection (1) shall take effect on the date of the notice or if a later date is specified in the notice, the later date.

45. (1) The Authority may, by notice to a person whose financial conduct licence has been suspended or revoked under this Act, and on conditions specified in the notice, allow the licensee to carry out the licensed activity to the extent, and for a period specified in the notice.

(2) The conditions specified under subsection (1) shall ensure that the retail financial customers of the licensee are treated fairly in relation to suspension or termination of the licensed activity.

46. (1) The Authority shall, before the Authority varies, suspends or revokes a financial conduct licence—

(a) give the licensee notice of the proposed action and a statement of the reasons for the variation, suspension or revocation; and
(b) invite the licensee to make submissions on the matter within thirty days of the decision or such other period as the Authority may determine.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply if the licensee applied for the variation, suspension or revocation.

(3) The Authority shall, in deciding whether to vary, suspend or revoke a licence—

(a) consider all submissions made by the licensee under subsection (1); and
(b) notify the licensee of its decision whether to vary, suspend or revoke the licence as soon as practicable.

(4) The Authority may, if the delay involved in complying, or complying fully, with subsection (1) in respect of a proposed action is likely to—

(a) prejudice retail financial customers;
(b) prejudicially affect financial sector stability; or
(c) defeat the object of the action,

take the action without having complied, or complied fully, with the provisions of subsection (1).

(5) The Authority shall, if the Authority takes action without having complied, or complied fully with subsection (1) for the reason set out in subsection (4), give the licensee a statement of the reasons why that subsection was not complied with.

47. The Authority shall not suspend or revoke a financial conduct licence held by a person who holds a licence under a sectoral law unless the Authority has—

(a) consulted the authority responsible for licensing the holder of that licence under the relevant sectoral law; and
(b) taken into account any comments made by that authority in determining the action to take.

48. (1) A provider shall—

(a) comply with the applicable requirements of a conduct rule in relation to the identification of financial conduct licences in business documentation, including advertisements and other promotional material; and
(b) make its financial conduct licence or a copy of the licence available at no cost to any person on reasonable request.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings.

49. The Authority shall publish—

(a) all financial conduct licences granted under this Act; and
(b) any instrument varying, suspending or revoking a financial conduct licence.

50. This Part shall not limit any other provision of this Act that specifies matters to be considered in relation to the grant of a financial conduct licence, or the circumstances in which a financial conduct licence may be granted, varied, suspended or revoked.

PART V-CONDUCT RULES

51. (1) The Cabinet Secretary may, in consultation with the Authority, make rules hereinafter referred to as the “conduct rules” for the conduct of providers in relation to the provision of financial products or financial services to retail financial customers.

(2) A conduct rule made under subsection (1) shall—

(a) ensure that a provider treats retail financial customers fairly; and

(b) reduce the risk that the providers engage in conduct that is or contributes to financial crime.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a conduct rule may make provisions relating to—

(a) measures to combat abusive practices related to financial products or services to retail financial customers;

(b) requirements for the fair treatment of retail financial customers, including—

(i) the promotion, marketing and distribution of, and advice in relation to, those products and services; and

(ii) the resolution of complaints and disputes concerning those products and services, including redress;

(c) the provision of information to retail financial customers;

(d) fit and proper person requirements in relation to a provider, a key person of the provider, a significant owner of the providers, a representative of the provider and any contractor engaged by a provider;

(e) governance in relation to—

(i) the composition, membership and operation of governing bodies;
(ii) identifying and managing conflicts of interest

(f) the terms and conditions of office, including remuneration and incentives for members of the governing bodies;

(g) the terms and conditions of engagement of key persons, representatives and contractors;

(h) financial management including—

   (i) accounting, actuarial and auditing requirements;

   (ii) risk management and internal control requirements;

   (iii) financial statements, updates on financial position and public reporting and disclosures;

(i) control functions;

(j) reporting to the Authority;

(k) outsourcing;

(l) requirements for the safekeeping of assets, including requirements relating to the approval and supervision of nominees and custodians; and

(m) requirements for providers to provide reasons for taking specified decisions in relation to retail financial customers, including decisions to terminate or refuse to provide a financial product or a financial service.

(4) A conduct rule may empower the Authority to make determinations for the purposes of that rule.

(5) A conduct rule may make different provisions for different—

   (a) categories of providers or key persons;

   (b) categories of retail financial customers;

   (c) categories of financial products or financial services;

   (d) ways of marketing financial products or financial services; and
(e) any other circumstances.

(6) The Cabinet Secretary shall, in making conduct rules under subsection (1), take into account the principle that the requirements imposed by the rules shall be proportionate to the nature and extent of the risks the requirements are intended to address.

(7) Failure to comply with subsection (6) shall not affect the validity of the conduct rules.

52. (1) A conduct rule may declare a specific conduct in connection with a financial product or a financial service to be an unfair business practice if the conduct—

(a) is or is likely to be materially inconsistent with the fair treatment of retail financial customers;
(b) is deceptive or misleading or is likely to deceive or mislead retail financial customers; or
(c) unfairly prejudices, or is likely to prejudice unfairly, retail financial customers or a category of retail financial customers.

(2) A provider who engages in conduct declared to be an unfair business practice commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for a first offence, to a fine of five million shillings;
(b) for the second and subsequent offence, to a fine of ten million shillings.

PART VI- CREDIT

53. (1) This Part, except sections 56 and 57, Part VIII and Part XI, applies in relation to the provision of credit, or a credit contract, if the borrower is a retail financial customer.

(2) This Part shall not apply to the provision of credit where, at the time the credit contract is entered into, the borrower is an associate, as defined in section 2 of the Banking Act, of the lender.

(3) This Part shall not apply to a lender at a particular time if, at that time, the number of the credit contracts under which the lender provides credit is less than—

(a) fifty contracts; or
(b) if the regulations prescribe a different number of contracts, the number of contracts.
(4) This Part shall not apply to the provision of credit by a person if that is merely incidental to the sale or provision of goods by the person.

(5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), this Part shall not apply in relation to a credit contract entered into before the commencement of this Part.

(6) If—

(a) a credit contract entered into before the commencement of this Part is varied; and
(b) this Part would have applied to the credit contract if this Part had been in force when the contract was entered into;

this Part applies in respect of the variation and applies to the credit contract as varied.

(7) If—

(a) a guarantee in relation to a credit contract given before the commencement of this Part is varied; and
(b) this Part would have applied to the guarantee if it had been in force when the guarantee was given;

this Part applies in respect of the variation and applies to the guarantee as varied.

54. Nothing in this Part compels a lender to enter into a credit contract with a retail financial customer.

55. Except as expressly provided in this Part, this Part shall apply despite any provision of contract to the contrary.

56. (1) The Cabinet Secretary may, in consultation with the Authority, make regulations prescribing standards and imposing requirements with respect to the provision of credit under this Part.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may make different provision in relation to credit contracts according to—

(a) the amount of credit involved;
(b) the duration of the credit contract;
(c) the purpose for which the credit is provided;
(d) whether the borrower’s obligations under the credit contract are secured, and the method of security;

(e) whether the borrower’s obligations under the credit contract are guaranteed; and

(f) the arrangements for repayment; and

(g) different circumstances.

(3) Without limiting what regulations for the purposes of section 59, 60, 61, 75 and 78 on reckless lending, the regulations may specify—

(a) how to determine likelihood of repayment for the purposes of those sections for different categories of credit contract;

(b) how to determine for the purposes of those sections what level of likelihood of repayment is acceptable;

(c) the inquiries to be made for the purposes of making those determination; and

(d) how information relevant to making the determinations shall be verified.

57. (1) The Cabinet Secretary shall, when formulating regulations under section 56 take into account the principle that the requirements imposed by the regulations on lenders and borrowers shall be proportionate to the nature and extent of the conduct risks the requirements are intended to address.

(2) Failure to comply with subsection (1) shall not affect the validity of regulations made for the purposes of this Part.

58. (1) A person shall not solicit an application for the provision of credit from a retail financial customer, or for an increase in the amount of credit under, or the credit limit under a credit contract if the contact is made—

(a) in the course of, or because of an unsolicited contact with the customer;

(b) a way other than a way specified by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; and

(c) outside the hours as may be specified by the regulations.
(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable—

(a) for a first offence to a fine of 5,000,000 shillings; and

(b) for a second and subsequent offence to a fine of 10,000,000 shillings.

(3) Subsection (1) shall apply if the credit to be applied for, or that is provided, would be or is provided under a regulated credit contract.

(4) A lender shall not enter into a regulated credit contract unless—

(a) the borrower had made a written application to the lender for the credit; and

(b) the application complies with the requirements of the regulations.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for a first offence to a fine of 5,000,000 shillings; and

(b) for the second or subsequent offence to a fine of 10,000,000 shillings.

(6) Subsection (2) shall not apply in circumstances as may be specified in the Regulations.

59. (1) A lender shall not receive an application for credit from a person who is a retail financial customer unless the lender gave the person, in a way and within the period as may be prescribed by the regulations—

(a) a pre-contract statement; and

(b) a quotation;

in respect of the proposed contract.

(2) A pre-contract statement under subsection (1) (a) shall—

(a) specify the interest rates that are or may be charged under the proposed contract;

(b) specify the insurance required by the proposed contract, and specifically identify any fees and charges imposed under the proposed credit contract in relation to insurance;
(c) specify any fee, charge or cost that may be imposed under the proposed contract and the circumstances in which they may be imposed;

(d) if specified are to be repaid at specified intervals, specify the—

(i) date by which the amount of credit and all interest, fees or charges will be paid;

(ii) total amount that will be repaid if those amounts are repaid at those intervals; and

(e) comply with the requirements of regulations.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for a first offence to a fine of 10,000,000 shillings; and

(b) for the second or subsequent offence to a fine of 20,000,000 shillings.

60. (1) A lender shall, if a retail financial customer applies for the provision of credit from a lender who holds a financial markets conduct license and the lender—

(a) declines the application; or

(b) indicates that the lender will consider the application for the provision of credit but on different terms to those applied for;

on request by the retail financial customer, give the retail financial customer a statement of the reasons for doing so, and the material facts on which the lender’s decision was based.

(2) A lender shall, if a lender exercises a right under a regulated credit contract that is a recurring credit contract to decline to make further advances, on request by the borrower, give the borrower a statement of the reasons for doing so.

(3) A lender shall, if the reasons under subsection (1) or (2) includes an adverse credit report, provide a copy of the report with the statement.

(4) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine of 2,500,000 shillings.
61. (1) A person shall not enter into a regulated credit contract as a lender unless the person has determined, in accordance with this section and the regulations, that the likelihood that the borrower will be able to comply with the borrower’s financial obligations under the contract without substantial hardship is acceptable.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for a first offence to a fine of 10,000,000 shillings or to an imprisonment of 2 years or both; and

(b) for a second and subsequent offence, to a fine of 20,000,000 or imprisonment of five years or to both.

(3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) that the lender took all the steps required by the regulations and all other reasonable steps, and made all inquiries that were reasonable for it to make and comply with that subsection.

62. (1) A lender under a regulated credit contract shall not exercise a right it has under the contract to vary a provision of the contract without the consent of the borrower unless the lender has determined, in accordance with the regulations, that the probability that the borrower will be able to comply, without substantial hardship, with the borrower’s financial obligations under the contract as varied is acceptable.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1), commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for a first offence to a fine of 10,000,000 shillings or imprisonment for 2 years or both; and

(b) for a second or a subsequent offence to a fine of 20,000,000 shillings or to an imprisonment for five years.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply if the variation reduces the borrower’s obligations.

(4) Subsection (1) shall not apply if the lender took all the steps required by the regulations and all other reasonable steps, and made all inquiries that were reasonable for the lender to make, to comply with that subsection.

63. (1) A lender shall not —
(a) increase or have a provision in the contract that purports to increase the credit limit under a contract without the consent of the borrower; or

(b) vary or agree to vary the contract to increase the amount of credit to be provided to the borrower, or the credit limit, unless the lender has determined, in accordance with the regulations that the probability that the borrower will be able to comply with the borrower’s financial obligations under the contract as varied without substantial hardship is acceptable.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for the first offence to a fine of 10,000,000 or imprisonment for 2 years; and

(b) for the second and subsequent offence, to a fine of 20,000,000 shillings or to imprisonment of five years or both.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not apply if the lender took all the steps required by the regulations and all other reasonable steps, and made all inquiries that were reasonable for it to make, to comply with that subsection.

(4) This section applies in addition to section 62.

PART VII-REGULATED CREDIT CONTRACTS

64. (1) A lender shall ensure that each regulated credit contract—

(a) is in writing;

(b) is in the prescribed form, including the layout and font size;

(c) includes any provisions as may be specified in the regulations; and

(d) is consistent with the pre-contract statement and quotation last given to the borrower under section 59 before the contract was entered into.

(2) A lender shall give the borrower a copy of the document, free of charge, as soon as practicable after the contract comes into effect.

(3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction—
(e) for the first offence to a fine of 5,000,000; and

(f) for the second and subsequent offence, to a fine of 10,000,000 shillings.

(4) Subsection (1) shall not prevent a variation of a regulated credit contract in accordance with this Part.

65. (1) A lender under a regulated credit contract shall give the borrower, a statement of account relating to the contract for each account period.

(2) A statement of account under subsection (1) shall—

(a) specify the account period to which the statement relates;

(b) record all amounts advanced to, incurred by or charged to, the borrower in relation to the contract during the account period;

(c) state the amount required to complete the contract as at the end of the account period, and how it is made up; and

(d) contain any other information as may be required by regulations.

(3) If the contract provides that—

(a) the borrower may, at any time, access by electronic means all the information specified under subsection (2); and

(b) the lender agrees that at all times, that information so accessible will be complete and up to date; the lender need not give the borrower statements of account.

(4) This section shall not prevent a lender giving a borrower statements of account more frequently.

(5) A person who contravenes this section (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 2,000,000 shillings.

66. (1) A lender under a regulated credit contract shall, within ten days after a request by the borrower, give the borrower a statement of—

(a) the amount of the outstanding balance under the contract as at the date of the request;
(b) the amount of interest, fees and charges included in the outstanding amount;

(c) the amount of any fees or charges to be imposed if the borrower were to terminate the contract at the date of the statement; and

(d) any other information as maybe required by regulations.

(2) A request made under subsection (1) may or may not be in writing.

(3) A lender shall not charge any fee for a statement under this section unless the borrower has been given a statement under this section in relation to the contract within the previous six months.

(4) The Authority shall prescribe the amount of fees to be charged for a statement anticipated under subsection (3).

(5) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 2,000,000 shillings.

67. (1) A borrower under a regulated credit contract may at any time, after giving the lender reasonable notice, complete the contract by paying to the lender, or as the lender directs in writing, the amount outstanding under the contract as at the date of payment.

(2) The regulations may prescribe —

   (a) the period of notice under subsection (1); and

   (b) the method of calculating the amount outstanding

(3) A notice under subsection (1) may not be in writing.

(4) A payment of the amount outstanding made under subsection (1) shall discharge the contract.

68. (1) The lender shall, if the lender under a regulated credit contract—

   (a) reduces the credit limit under the contract;

   (b) declines an application by the borrower to increase the credit limit under the contract;

   (c) declines to provide the borrower with a replacement credit card for use in connection with the contract; or

   (d) takes any other action as may be prescribed by regulations;
on request by the borrower, give the borrower a statement of the reasons for taking the action, and the material facts on which the lender’s decision was based.

(2) The lender shall, if the reasons under subsection (1) include an adverse credit report, provide a copy of the report with the statement.

(3) Subsection (1)(a) shall not apply if the borrower requested the reduction

(4) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 2,000,000 shillings.

69. (1) A lender under a regulated credit contract shall not take an action that may adversely affect the borrower unless the lender has given the borrower a notice of the proposed action in the prescribed manner.

(2) A notice given under subsection (1) shall contain information, and be in a form as may be specified in the regulations.

(3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 2,000,000 shillings.

70. (1) A lender under a regulated credit contract that is a recurring credit contract shall ensure that amounts are not advanced under the contract unless the borrower authorised the particular advance in the way specified in the contract.

(2) The regulations may specify requirements in respect of the ways in which advances may be authorised.

(3) The borrower shall, where—

(a) the lender under a regulated credit contract that is a recurring credit advances an amount; and

(b) the advance was not authorised in the way specified in the contract;

not liable to —

(i) repay the advance except to the extent and in the circumstances, if any, as may be determined in accordance with the regulations; and

(ii) pay any amount by way of interest, fees or charges referable to the advance.
(4) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 2,000,000 shillings.

71. (1) A regulated credit contract may require the borrower to effect and maintain, or be covered by insurance where the—

(a) sum insured in respect of the borrower at a specified time does not exceed the amount of credit owing by the borrower under the contract at that time; or

(b) credit is provided for the lease or purchase of goods or immoveable property, in respect of the specified risks in relation to the goods or property, to not more than the full insurable value of the goods or property.

(2) The regulations may prescribe requirements in relation to insurance referred to under subsection (1) or (2), including specified times.

(3) A regulated credit contract that—

(a) requires the borrower to effect and maintain, or be covered by any insurance other than that referred to under this section; or

(b) provides for the borrower to bear the costs of any insurance other than that referred to under this section, shall be of no effect.

72. (1) A lender under a regulated credit contract shall not—

(a) have a provision in a credit contract that provides for an interest to become payable before the end of the period by reference to which the interest is calculated;

(b) charge or recover, or attempt to charge or recover any amount referred to under paragraph (a) before the time at which the amount becomes due and payable.

(2) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for the first offence to a fine of 5,000,000 or to an imprisonment of two years; and

(b) for the second and subsequent offence, to a fine of 10,000,000 shillings or to an imprisonment of five years.
PART VIII-GUARANTEES

73. This Part shall apply to a guarantor of obligations of a borrower under a credit contract whether regulated or not, if—

(a) the guarantor is a natural person;

(b) the guarantee is provided as part of the conduct by the guarantor of a micro enterprise, or a small enterprise as defined in the Micro and Small Enterprises Act, 2012; or

(c) the guarantor is in a class of persons declared by regulation to be a retail financial customer in relation to the provision of the credit.

74. (1) A lender shall, before a retail financial customer makes an offer in relation to a credit contract or proposed credit contract to provide a guarantee in relation to the borrower’s obligations under the contract, give that customer a pre-contract statement, in the prescribed form, and containing the information, as may be specified by the regulations.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 5,000,000 shillings.

75. (1) A lender shall not accept an offer from a guarantor to provide a guarantee in relation to the borrower’s obligations under a credit contract or proposed credit contract unless—

(a) the lender gave that person a pre-contract statement before the offer was made within a specified time and in the prescribed form containing information as may be specified in the regulations;

(b) the offer is in writing; and

(c) the offer complies with any other requirements as may be specified in the regulations.

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply to all customers whether a retail financial customer or any another person.

(3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for the first offence to a fine of 10,000,000 or to an imprisonment of two years; and
76. (1) A lender under a credit contract or a proposed credit contract shall not accept from a guarantor a guarantee of the borrowers obligation under the contract unless the lender has determined, in accordance with the regulations that—

(a) the probability that the person will be able to comply without substantial hardship with the guarantor’s financial obligations under the guarantee is acceptable; and

(b) it complies with any circumstances as may be prescribed in the regulations.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for the first offence to a fine of 10,000,000 or to an imprisonment of two years; and

(b) for the second and subsequent offence, to a fine of 20,000,000 shillings or to an imprisonment of five years.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply if the lender took all the steps required by the regulations and all other reasonable steps, and made all inquiries that were reasonable to comply with that subsection.

77. (1) A lender shall ensure that each guarantee in its favour in relation to a credit contract given by a guarantor—

(a) is in writing; and

(b) is in the prescribed form including the layout and font size; and

(c) includes any other provision as may be specified in the regulations.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 52,000,000 shillings.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not prevent a variation of a guarantee in accordance with this Part.

78. A guarantor’s obligations under a guarantee shall cease to apply if a credit contract to which a guarantee given by a guarantor is varied.
79. (1) A lender under a credit contract shall not vary or agree to vary a guarantee of the borrower’s obligations under the contract so as to increase the maximum amount that may be payable under the guarantee by a guarantor unless the lender has determined, in accordance with the regulations, that—

(a) the probability that the person will be able to comply without substantial hardship with the guarantor’s financial obligations under the guarantee is acceptable; and

(b) it complies with any circumstances as may be prescribed in the regulations.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(c) for the first offence to a fine of 10,000,000 or to an imprisonment of two years; and

(d) for the second and subsequent offence, to a fine of 20,000,000 shillings or to an imprisonment of five years.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply if the lender took all the steps required by the regulations and all other reasonable steps, and made all inquiries that were reasonable to comply with that subsection.

80. (1) The lender shall, if—

(a) the lender under a credit contract gives the borrower a statement of accounts in accordance with section 65 or a statement in accordance with section 66; and

(b) a guarantee given in relation to a credit by a guarantor is in force, give, at the same time a copy of the statement, free of charge to the guarantor.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 2,000,000 shillings.

81. (1) The lender shall, where—
(a) the borrower under a credit contract completes the contract in accordance with section 67; and

(b) a guarantee given by a guarantor is in force in relation to the credit contract;

82. (1) This section applies to a regulated credit contract where, at the time the contract was entered into—

(a) the lender had not complied with the obligations in sections 61, 62 and 63; or

(b) the lender did not hold a financial conduct licence authorising it to provide the credit.

(2) This section applies to a guarantee in relation to a regulated credit contract where, at the time the guarantee was entered into—

(a) the lender had not complied with the obligations in section 76 or 79; or

(b) the lender did not hold a financial conduct licence authorising the provider to provide the credit under the regulated credit contract.

(3) This section applies to a regulated credit contract or a guarantee in relation to a regulated credit contract if an order under section 89 so provides.

(4) A lender shall not entitled to any payment under the regulated credit contract or the guarantee in excess of the amount of credit.

83. (1) This section applies to a regulated credit contract or a guarantee in relation to a regulated credit contract if, at the time it was entered into, it included a provision that—

(a) is of no effect under this Act;

(b) purports to authorise the lender to do something that would be a contravention of law;
(c) purports to exempt the lender for a liability in relation to the regulated credit contract or the guarantee, unless the regulations permit the exemption;

(d) purports to authorise the lender or its representatives to act on behalf of the borrower in relation to the regulated credit contract, or the guarantor in relation to the guarantee or the regulated credit contract, unless the regulations permit it to do so;

(e) purports to authorise the lender or its representatives to enter any premises to take possession of goods or immoveable property to which the regulated credit contract or the guarantee relates;

(f) is or is to the effect of a provision specified in the regulations.

(2) The Ombudsman may, on an application by a borrower —

(a) determine that this section applies in relation to the contract or the guarantee; or

(b) make any determination the Ombudsman considers just to adjust the rights and liabilities of the parties to the contract or guarantee.

(3) A determination under subsection (2) shall bind the provider.

84. A credit provider shall not require, in the credit contract, the borrower to acquire specified goods or specified services, including insurance, from a specified third party as a condition of the—

(a) provision of credit; or

(b) continued provision of credit.

PART X- ADVERTISING

85. (1) A person who does not hold a financial conduct licence shall not publish an advertisement for—

(a) the provision of credit; or

(b) for the sale of or lease of property where the advertisement suggests that the vendor shall or may facilitate the provision of credit to a buyer or lessee of the property.
(2) A person commits an offence if that person—

(a) publishes an advertisement—

(i) for the provision of credit; or

(ii) for the sale or lease of property where the advertisement suggests that the vendor will or may facilitate the provision of credit to a buyer or lessee of the property;

(b) it is reasonable to conclude that the advertisement was published to induce retail financial customers to apply for the provision of credit;

(c) does not meet the requirements of subsection (3).

(3) An advertisement—

(a) shall be approved in writing by the lender before it is published;

(b) at all times during the period that the advertisement is published, the lender shall hold a financial conduct licence;

(c) state that the credit will not be provided except on written application to the lender and subject to the terms of a regulated credit contract; and

(d) complies with any other requirement as may be prescribed by the regulations, including the form and content;

(4) A person who contravenes subsections (1) and (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for a first offence, to a fine of 5,000,000 shillings; and

(b) for the second and subsequent offence, to a fine of 10,000,000 shillings.

(5) A person is not in contravention of subsection (1) or (2) if that person—

(a) publishes the advertisement in the ordinary course of a media business; and
(b) did not know, and has no reason to suspect that the publication would amount to a contravention of the sections.

(6) For the purposes of this section, “media business” refers to is the business of—

(a) publishing or distributing newspapers or magazines;

(b) providing radio or television broadcasting services; or

(c) providing electronic services, including services provided through the internet, that are similar to the businesses under in paragraph (a) or (b).

86. (1) A lender shall ensure that an advertisement that the lender publishes or authorises under section 85—

(a) does not include any false, misleading or deceptive representation; and

(b) is not misleading or deceptive by omission.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of section (1) a false, misleading or deceptive representations include—

(a) a representation that the provision of the credit has an approval, benefits or qualities that it does not have;

(b) a representation that the lender has an approval, status, affiliation or connection that it does not have;

(c) a representation that the regulated credit contract, this Act or another law confers a right on the borrower that it does not confer;

(d) if the regulated credit contract, this Act or any another law confers a right on the borrower, a representation that suggests that that is not the case; or

(e) a representation as to the interest rate, or the charges payable under the regulated credit contract, that is not accurate or complete.
(3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 5,000,000 shillings.

PART XI- INTEREST RATES

87. (1) A lender shall not charge or recover, or attempt to charge or recover from the borrower or a guarantor any amount on account of interest under the contract that exceeds the maximum rates as may be prescribed by the Authority from time to time.

(2) A person who contravenes subsections (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction —

   (f) for a first offence, to a fine of 5,000,000 shillings; and

   (g) for the second and subsequent offence, to a fine of 10,000,000 shillings.

(3) A lender shall not have a provision in a credit contract —

   (a) that permits the lender to charge any interest, fee, charge or cost, however described; and

   (b) the nature and amount or method of calculation of the interest, fee, charge or cost was not clearly disclosed in the pre-contract statement and the quotation provided to the borrower under section 59;

(4) A lender shall ensure that a credit contract shall not contain a provision—

   (a) for the interest rate applicable to the contract to vary during the term of the contract;

   (b) for the variation otherwise than by a fixed relationship to a reference rate specified in the contract; and

   (c) the reference rate differs from the reference rate provided for similar credit contracts currently being issued by the lender.

(5) Despite any rule of the common law, the total amount of amounts of interest, fees, charge or cost, however described, that accrue under a credit contract during the period that the borrower is in default under the contract shall not exceed the outstanding balance under the contract as at the time that the default occurs.
88. (1) The Cabinet Secretary may, in consultation with the Authority, make regulations with respect to—

(a) credit information;

(b) credit reference bureaux; and

(c) credit reports.

(2) Without the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may make provision for—

(a) the collection, storage, processing, use and disclosure of credit information;

(b) information security arrangements for holding credit information;

(c) the content of credit reports, including verification of the contents of credit reports;

(d) rights of purposes to access, challenge and correct credit information held about them, including the resolution of disputes a; and

(e) standards and requirements to be imposed on credit reference bureaux.

PART XII - INFORMATION GATHERING, INSPECTIONS AND INVESTIGATION

94. (1) The Authority may, by notice to any person, request the person to provide specified information or a specified document in the possession of, or under the control of the person that is relevant in assisting the Authority to perform its functions.

(2) The Authority may, by notice to a provider, require the provider to provide specified information or a specified document in the possession of, or under the control of, the provider that is relevant to the Authority’s assessment of compliance with, or risk of contraventions by a licensed provider of—

(a) a non-bank financial sector law;

(b) a directive; or

(c) an enforceable undertaking accepted by the Authority.

(3) A notice under subsection (1) and (2) may require the information or document to be verified as specified in the notice, including by an auditor approved by the Authority.

(4) A provider who is given a notice under this section and fails to comply with the requirements of that notice commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 5,000,000 shillings.
95. (1) The Authority may, at any time during normal business hours, enter the business premises of a provider that holds a financial conduct licence and conduct an inspection.

(2) An investigation under subsection (1) is to—

(a) check compliance by the provider with this Act or an enforceable undertaking accepted by the Authority;

(b) determine the extent of the risk posed by the provider of contraventions of this Act;

(c) assist the Authority in supervising the provider; and

(d) determine any other matter as the Authority consider necessary for the attainment of its objectives under the Act.

(3) An inspection shall be conducted with strict regard to decency and good order.

(4) An officer of the Authority has, when conducting an inspection on premises, the right of access to any part of the premises and to any business document on the premises, and may—

(a) examine, make extracts from and copy any business document in the premises;

(b) question any person on the premises to find out information relevant to the inspection;

(c) give the provider or a person on the premises a directive to produce to the Authority, at a time and place and in a manner specified in the directive, a specified business document that is relevant to the inspection and is in the possession or under the control of the provider;

(d) examine and make extracts from, and copy any document produced under paragraph (c);

(e) if as a result of the inspection, the Authority suspects on reasonable grounds that a contravention of this Act has occurred or is likely to occur—

(i) give a directive to the person apparently in charge of the premises not to remove from the premises, or conceal, destroy or otherwise interfere with, a specified business document; or
(ii) take possession of, and remove from the premises, a business document for the purpose of preventing another person from removing, concealing, destroying or otherwise interfering with the document.

(5) The Authority shall, if the Authority takes any document from the premises under subsection (4), issue a receipt to the person apparently in charge of the premises, for any document taken.

(6) The Authority shall ensure that any business document removed under subsection (4) is returned to the provider when retention of the document is no longer necessary to achieve the object of this Act.

(7) The provider from whose premises a document is removed or the authorised representative of that provider, may, during normal business hours and under the supervision of the Authority, examine, copy and make extracts from the document.

96. The Authority may instruct an investigator to conduct an investigation in respect of any person if—

(a) the Authority suspects that the person has contravened, may be contravening or is about to contravene, this Act;

(b) is a licensee and the Authority suspect that the licensee may have engaged in embezzlement, fraud, misfeasance or other misconduct in connection with its regulated activity; or

(c) it is necessary to do so to assist a foreign regulatory Authority to investigate a contravention of a law of a foreign country.

97. (1) The Authority may appoint a person as an investigator or any person to assist the investigator in carrying out an investigation under this Act.

(2) The Authority shall give an investigator appointed under subsection (1), a certificate of appointment, which the investigator shall keep at all times when an investigator exercises any power or performs a duty under this Act.

(3) An investigator shall produce the certificate of appointment at the request of any person in respect of whom a power is being exercised.
(4) An investigator shall return to the Authority the certificate of appointment within seven days after ceasing to be an investigator.

(5) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 50,000 shillings.

(6) It shall be a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (4) that the certificate was lost through no fault of the defendant.

98. (1) An investigator may, for the purposes of conducting an investigation,—

(a) through a notice, require any person who the investigator reasonably believes may be able to provide information relevant to the investigation to appear before the investigator, at a time and place specified in the notice, to be questioned by an investigator;

(b) through a notice, require any person who the investigator reasonably believes may be able to produce a document or item relevant to the investigation, to produce the document or item—

(i) to an investigator, at a time and place specified in the notice; and

(ii) be questioned by an investigator about the document or item produced;

(c) question a person under oath or affirmation and administer such oath or affirmation;

(d) examine, copy or make extracts from any document or thing produced to an investigator as required under this subsection;

(e) take possession of, and retain any document or item produced to an investigator as required under this subsection; or

(f) give a directive to a person present while the investigator is exercising powers under this section, to facilitate the exercise of such powers.

(2) An investigator who takes a document or item under paragraph (1)(f) shall—

(a) give the person producing it a receipt;
(b) return the document taken under paragraph (1) (f) to the person who produced it when—

(i) retention of the document or item is no longer necessary to achieve the object of the investigation; or

(ii) all proceedings arising out of the investigation have been concluded.

(4) A person who is entitled to possession of a document or item taken under paragraph (1)(f), or its authorised representative, may, during normal office hours and under the supervision of the Authority, examine, copy and make extracts from the document, or inspect the item.

(5) A person being questioned under this section may be represented by a legal practitioner.

99. (1) An investigator may, for the purposes of conducting an investigation—

(a) enter any premises at any time—

(i) with the prior consent of the person apparently in control of the premises;

(ii) if the entry is authorised by a warrant; or

(iii) if an investigator believes, on reasonable grounds, that the delay caused by applying for and obtaining the warrant will defeat the purpose of the search, and believes on reasonable grounds that a warrant would be issued; and

(b) search the premises for anything that may afford evidence of a contravention of this Act.

(2) An entry or search of premises under this Part shall be done during the day unless it is authorised by a warrant and the warrant expressly authorises entry at night.

(3) An investigator may be accompanied and assisted by a police officer or a person appointed under section 95 during the entry and search of any premises.
(4) A investigator shall, while on the premises to conduct an investigation, have the right of access to any part of the premises and to any document or item on the premises, and may—

(a) open or cause to be opened any strongroom, safe, cabinet or any other container in which the investigator reasonably suspects there is a document or item that may afford evidence of the contravention concerned or be relevant to the request;

(b) examine, make extracts from and copy any document in the premises;

(c) question any person on the premises to find out information relevant to the investigation;

(d) require a person on the premises to produce to the investigator any document or item that is relevant to the investigation and is in the possession or under the control of the person;

(e) require a person on the premises to operate any computer or similar system on or available through the premises to—

(i) search for information in or available through that system; and

(ii) produce a record of that information in any media that the investigator reasonably requires;

(f) if it is not practicable or appropriate to make a requirement under paragraph (e), operate any computer or similar system on or available through the premises; and

(g) take possession of, and take from the premises, a document or item that may afford evidence of the contravention concerned or be relevant to the request.

(5) An investigator, and any person assisting an investigator, may use reasonable force to exercise any power under this section.

(6) An investigator shall—
(a) give the person apparently in charge of the premises a receipt for any document or item taken by the investigator under this section;

(b) return the document taken by the investigator when—

(i) retention of the document or item is no longer necessary to achieve the object of the investigation; or

(ii) all proceedings arising out of the investigations have been disposed of.

(7) A person from whose premises a document or item was taken as mentioned in paragraph (4)(g), or its authorised representative, may, during normal office hours and under the supervision of the Authority, examine, copy and make extracts from the document or item.

Warrants

100. (1) An investigator may apply to the Court for a warrant under this Part authorising entry into and search of specified premises if the Court is satisfied that—

(a) the investigator is conducting or is about to conduct an investigation;

(b) the occupier of the premises has refused an investigator entry to the premises; or

(c) there is a reasonable suspicion that a document or an item relevant to the investigation is at the premises.

(2) An investigator who enters the premises under a warrant shall—

(a) if there is apparently no one in charge of the premises when the warrant is executed, fix a copy of the warrant on a prominent and accessible place in the premises; and

(b) on reasonable demand by any person on the premises, produce the warrant or a copy of the warrant.

101. (1) A person shall not intentionally or negligently interfere with or hinder the conduct of an inspection or an investigation.
(2) Subject to section 102, a person who is given a notice or a directive under this Part shall comply with the requirements of the notice and shall answer all questions fully and truthfully, to the best of that person’s knowledge.

(3) A person shall not—

(a) without lawful excuse, refuse or fail to comply with any reasonable request by an investigator in connection with the conduct of an investigation; and

(b) give an investigator any information that is false or misleading, including by omission, and is relevant to an investigation, if the person knows that the information was false or misleading, including by omission, and relevant to an investigation.

(5) A person who—

(a) destroys or renders illegible any document; and

(b) the person knew that the document is or was likely to be relevant to an investigation;

commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of 20,000,000 shillings, unless an investigator or the Authority had authorised the person’s action before it occurred.

102. (1) A person who is questioned, or required to produce a document or information, by the Authority or an investigator under this Part may object to answering the question on the grounds that the answer, the contents of the document or the information may tend to incriminate the person.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an answer tends to incriminate a person if it would tend to show, and the contents of a document or information tend to incriminate a person if they tend to show, that the person has committed an offence, a contravention of this Act or an offence or contravention under the law of a foreign country.

(3) Despite receiving an objection under subsection (1), the Authority or an investigator may require the question to be answered or the document or information to be produced.

(4) An answer given, a document or information produced under subsection (3), shall not be admissible in evidence against the person in any proceedings for an offence, except proceedings in respect of a contravention of this Act based on the false or misleading nature of the answer.
(5) The Authority or an investigator shall, before the Authority or an investigator questions a person under this Part, if the Authority or the investigator suspects that the person has contravened this Act, inform the person of the right to object under this section.

(6) This section shall not limit any right of a person.

103. (1) A person shall not be compelled to answer a question or comply with a requirement under this Part to produce a document or information, to the extent that the person is entitled to claim legal professional privilege in relation to the answer, contents of the document or the information.

(2) If the person under subsection (1) is a legal practitioner, that person is entitled and required to claim that privilege on behalf of a client of the person.

(3) This section does not limit any right of a person.

PART XIII- ENFORCEMENT

104. (1) The Authority may publish—

(a) guidance notes on the application of this Act; and

(b) a statement regarding interpretation or application of this Act for the purposes of promoting clarity, consistency and certainty.

(2) Guidance notes published under subsection (1) (a) shall be for information purposes and shall not be binding.

(3) The Authority may amend or revoke an interpretation ruling if it is necessary to do so because of a judicial decision or a change in law.

105. (1) The Authority may issue a directive to a provider that holds a financial conduct licence requiring the provider to take action specified in the directive if the provider or a key person of the provider—

(a) has contravened or is likely to contravene this Act; or

(b) is involved or is likely to be involved in a financial crime.

(2) A directive under subsection (1) may be issued to—

(a) stop the provider from contravening this Act, or reducing the risk of such contraventions;
(b) stop the provider from being involved in financial crime, and reducing the risk that it may be so involved; or

(c) to remedy the effects of a contravention of this Act by the provider or key person or the involvement of the provider or key person in financial crime.

(f) remedy the effects of a contravention of this Act.

(6) A directive issued under subsection (1) shall specify a reasonable period for compliance.

(7) The Authority may, at any time, by notice to the person to whom the directive was issued, revoke the directive.

(8) A person who fails to comply with a directive under this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(a) for the first offence, to a fine of 5,000,000 shillings or to imprisonment for 2 years; and

(b) for the second or subsequent offence to a fine of 10,000,000 or imprisonment for 5 years.

106. (1) The Authority may issue a directive to a licenced provider and its significant owner requiring them to—

(a) prepare and submit to the Authority a plan satisfactory to the Authority under which the significant owner shall, within a specified period, cease to be a significant owner of the provider; and

(b) implement the plan required under subsection (1).

(2) The Authority may issue a directive under subsection (1) if the significant owner—

(a) has contravened or is likely to contravene this Act; or

(b) is involved or is likely to be involved in financial crime.

107. The Authority shall issue a directive requiring a licensed provider to remove a person from a specified position or function if that person—

(a) has contravened this Act;

(b) no longer complies with fit and proper requirements; or

(c) has been involved in financial crime.

108. (1) The Authority shall, before issuing a directive under this Act,—

(a) give the provider or a person to whom it is proposed to issue the directive, a draft of the proposed directive and a statement of the reasons thereof; and

(b) invite the provider or the person to make submissions on the matter within a specified period.

(2) The Authority shall, where a directive requires the removal of a person from a specified position or function—

(a) give the person a draft of the proposed directive and a statement of the reasons thereof; and

(b) invite that person to make submissions on the matter within a specified period.

(3) The Authority shall take into account all the submissions received under subsection (2) (b) in deciding whether to issue a directive.

(4) The Authority may, if a delay in complying or complying fully, with subsection (1) or (2) is likely to prejudice a retail financial customers or defeat the object of the directive, issue the directive without having complied, or complied fully, with the subsections.
(5) The Authority shall, if the Authority issues a directive without complying with subsection (1) or (2), at the same time, give a statement of the reasons why the subsections were not complied with to the person to whom the directive was issued.

(6) A person to who receives a statement under subsection (5) may make submissions to the Authority within thirty days after being given the statement.

(7) The Authority shall consider the submissions made under subsection (6), and notify the person, as soon as practicable, whether the Authority proposes to revoke the directive.

109. (1) The Tribunal may—

(a) where the Authority gives a provider a directive under this Act; and

(b) the provider is a party to a contract that is affected by the directive; on application by another party to a contract, make an order relating to the effect of the directive on the contract.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) may require the provider to—

(a) perform specified obligations under the contract; or

(b) compensate the applicant, as specified in the order; or

(c) any other order as the Tribunal may consider just and necessary in the circumstances

PROVIDED that the order shall not contravene the directive.

110. (1) A person may give an undertaking to the Authority in respect of its conduct in relation to a matter regulated by this Act.

(2) An undertaking given under subsection (1)—

(a) may include an undertaking to provide specified redress to retail financial customers; and

(b) shall, upon acceptance by the Authority, become enforceable this Act.
(3) A person who gives an enforceable undertaking under subsection (1) may, with the consent of the Authority, vary or withdraw the undertaking, at any time.

(4) The Authority shall publish all the enforceable undertakings that the Authority accepts, and each variation or withdrawal of the undertaking.

(5) The Authority may, if a provider that gave an enforceable undertaking breaches the undertaking, suspend or withdraw its conduct licence.

(6) The Authority may apply to the Tribunal if a person has contravened an enforceable undertaking.

(7) The Tribunal may, if it is satisfied with an application under subsection (6), may make,—

(a) an order directing the person to comply with the undertaking;

(b) if the undertaking relates to a contravention of the Act, an order directing the person to perform a specified act, or refrain from performing a specified act in order to—

(i) remedy the effects of the contravention; or

(ii) ensure that the person does not repeat the contravention; or

(c) any other incidental order which the Tribunal considers necessary and just to grant.

(8) The Authority may file in court, a certified copy of an order issued under subsection (7) if—

(a) the order has not been complied with; and

(b) either—

(i) no proceedings in a court appealing against the making of the order have been commenced by the end of the period for lodging such appeals; or

(ii) if such proceedings have been commenced, they have been concluded.
(9) An order, on being filed, shall have the effect of a civil judgement, and may be enforced as if lawfully given in that court.

111. (1) The High Court may, on an application by the Authority, make—

(a) an order that a person do, or desist from doing a specified thing to ensure compliance with this Act; and

(b) any other incidental order as the Court may consider just and necessary in the circumstances.

(2) The Court may make an order under subsection (1) if—

(a) it appears to the Court that a person is engaging, or proposes to engage, in conduct contravening this Act;

(b) the person has previously engaged in such conduct; or

(c) if there is danger of substantial or irreparable damage, prejudice or harm if the person engages in conduct contravening this Act.

(3) The Court may—

(a) make an order under this section even if another remedy is available; and

(b) not require the Authority to give an undertaking as to damages in connection with the application for an order under this section.

112. (1) The Authority may, where a natural person has—

(a) contravened this Act in a material respect;

(b) contravened in a material respect, an enforceable undertaking accepted by the Authority;

2. (1) The Board shall meet not less than four times in every financial year and not more than four months shall elapse between the date of one meeting and the date of the next meeting.

(2) Despite subparagraph (1), the chairperson may convene a special meeting of the Board at any time for transaction of the business of the Board upon requisition in writing by at least three members of the Board.

(3) Unless three quarters of the total members otherwise agree, every member shall be given at least fourteen days written notice of the meeting.

(4) The quorum for the conduct of the business of the Board shall be five members.

(5) The chairperson shall preside at every meeting of the Board and in the absence of the chairperson, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside and the member elected shall have all the powers of the chairperson with respect to that meeting and the business transacted in thereat.

(6) Unless a unanimous decision is reached, a decision on any matter before the Board shall be by a majority of votes of the members present and voting, and in case of a tie, the chairperson or the person presiding shall have a casting vote.
(7) Subject to subparagraph (4), proceedings of the Board shall not be invalidated by reason of a vacancy among the members thereof.

(8) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the Board may determine its own procedure and the procedure of any committee of the Board and for the attendance of other persons at its meetings, and may make standing orders in respect thereof.

3. (1) A member of the Board who has an interest in any contract, or any other matter, present at a meeting shall, at the meeting and as soon as reasonably practicable after the commencement, disclose the fact thereof and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question with respect to the contract or matter, or be counted in the quorum of the meeting during the consideration of that matter.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under subparagraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) A member who benefits from non-disclosure under subparagraph (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings.

4. Any contract, all instruments or decisions made by the Board shall be made under the hand of the Chairperson or any person authorized as such.
