The Government of Kenya (GoK) has received financing from the World Bank towards the cost of the Infrastructure Finance and Public Private Partnerships (IFPPP) Project and intends to apply part of the proceeds for consulting services.

The consulting services (“the Services”) include: (a) development of an Aviation Policy for Kenya that will create a sustainable enabling framework to foster the development of a safe, efficient and affordable air transport system, while keeping at the cutting edge of technological innovation in a rapidly changing and globalized environment; and (b) review the interim (short to medium term) investment requirements of Kenya Airports Authority with respect to Jomo Kenyatta International Airport, Nairobi against its longer-term sustainable solution. The assignment is expected to take six (6) months.

The detailed Terms of Reference (TOR) for the assignment can be found at the following websites: www.treasury.go.ke/tenders.html; www.pppunit.go.ke; or can be obtained at the address given below.

The National Treasury & Planning (the Client), through its Project Implementation Unit and in conjunction with the State Department of Transport, now invites eligible consulting firms (“Consultants”) to indicate their interest in providing the services. Interested Consultants should provide information demonstrating that they have the required qualifications and relevant experience to perform the Services. The shortlisting requirements for the Firm’s experience are; a) core business of the Consultant should be relevant to the assignment; (b) successfully undertaken at least two similar assignments in the last five years in the area of developing a policy for transport sector and preferably air transport; (c) experience working with public administration authorities and financing institutions (knowledge of procedures); (d) relevant experience, technical and managerial capability; (e) the core business of the Consultant should be relevant to the assignment; and (d) experience working in developing countries preferably in Africa. Key Experts will not be evaluated at the shortlisting stage.

A consultant will be selected in accordance with the World Bank’s Procurement Regulations for IPF Borrowers, July 2016 Revised November 2017 and August 2018 which can be found at the following website: www.worldbank.org/procurement.
6. The attention of interested Consultants is drawn to Section III, paragraphs, 3.14, 3.16, and 3.17 of the World Bank’s “Procurement Regulations for IPF Borrowers” July 2016 updated August 2018 (“Procurement Regulations”), setting forth the World Bank’s policy on conflict of interest.

7. Consultants may associate with other firms to enhance their qualifications, but should indicate clearly whether the association is in the form of a joint venture and/or a sub-consultancy. In the case of a joint venture, all the partners in the joint venture shall be jointly and severally liable for the entire contract, if selected.

8. A Consultant will be selected in accordance with the Quality Cost Based Selection method set out in the Procurement Regulations.
